RIWI Wins Third Contract with a Top International Bank under the Long-Term Agreement

Toronto, ON – RIWI Corp. (CSE: RIW) (the "Company" or "RIWI") is pleased to announce that one of its finance clients, a top-10 bank in the world as measured by assets under management, has awarded the Company a third contract. Work on this new contract, valued at US $543,000, has begun.

RIWI has so far won US $1.1 Million in business with this client over the course of the past 13 months. RIWI earns recurring revenue with the bank pursuant to a three-year long-term agreement signed in August 2017. RIWI signed its first contract in September 2017 valued at US $315,000 and signed a second contract valued at US $238,000 in February 2018. RIWI responds to ongoing data needs identified by the bank's global teams and therefore RIWI expects to win additional contracts in 2019 and 2020.

"Our unwavering commitment to client delivery excellence ensures that a growing proportion of RIWI's work in all of its business lines – global finance, global security, humanitarian aid, and global consumer goods – is now recurring revenue under long-term agreements," notes Mr. Neil Seeman, CEO of RIWI.

RIWI's data-on-demand offerings include: time-series analysis; predictions about major geopolitical events that significantly impact equities and commodities markets; and real-time analytics-infused insights about fast-changing investor sentiment and technology trends.
